Unlike conventional short tripods, this one has the advantage of having legs that do not enter the field of shooting. Ideal for macro, DIY or tutorials. Thanks to its compact size once retracted, it will become an essential travel companion because you can take it wherever you want.

The light ring adjusts for optimal illumination at all angles: you can adjust the angle of the phone clip for convenience and flexibility, with 360° rotation. The ring can be tilted 180° to record content from the front, on the table, or on the floor.
