

iPhone 14 Classic Monaco Case Pacific Blue - Recycled plastic DBramante1928

Descriptif produit

Thanks to its integrated magnet, this case works perfectly with all MagSafe accessories.

Bet on incomparable elegance and indisputable quality to provide your smartphone with increased protection.

Made from 75% recycled material, this eco-friendly case is better for the environment than a standard case.

This back cover contains an integrated MagSafe magnet. You can therefore combine it with MagSafe accessories, such as the wireless charger.

Since the edges of the case are higher than your iPhone screen, you will be able to place your device face down on your desk without the screen touching the surface.

Protect your phone and the planet

2 billion plastic phone cases are sold each year. Unfortunately, many of those cases end up in nature. The negative environmental impact of phone cases is real.

dbramante1928 work to reduce plastic pollution by replacing single-use plastic products with products made from recovered and recycled materials. And we do so without compromising on quality, functionality and design. Let's make a positive impact together.

With guidance from WWF, we work towards becoming climate positive.
