Designed to protect with style

Designed for protection... and durability

After being drop-tested for hundreds of hours, the shell has proven its ability to withstand everyday accidents. And its stain-resistant silicone stands the test of time.

Perfect dimensions, plus style

Specially designed for your mobile, this soft-touch shell is perfectly matched to the new, sleek photo module bar. Choose the same color as your smartphone, or create a customized combination.

A more responsible design

The shell has been designed at the same time as the smartphone to optimize charging and audio quality, and guarantee uninterrupted calls. What's more, it's made from at least 40% recycled plastic.
