Protect your iPad effectively

Versatile Protection

Enhance the protection and functionality of your Apple iPad 2022 to iPad 2025 with the Rotating Cover in Black. This case combines robust protection with an elegant look, ideal for versatile and easy use.

Premium protection

The case is made from hard PC and soft PU leather, offering excellent shock absorption and protection against accidents. The lychee-textured design offers a refined, stylish appearance while protecting the tablet from scratches and damage.

Flexible display options

Thanks to the 360-degree rotation function, you can easily use the tablet in landscape or portrait mode. This makes it perfect for hands-free media consumption, such as watching videos, reading or making video calls, with a flexible and comfortable viewing angle.

Elegant and functional design

The soft inner lining protects the screen from scratches and dust, while the elastic band keeps the cover securely closed. The design offers not only protection but also a luxurious appearance thanks to the delicate lychee texture.
